Here's our itinerary...

Friday, November 26, 2010.
You'll depart from your choice of pickup locations early this morning. On your way to Washington, your tour manager will provide lots of information about the city's sights. In mid-afternoon you'll arrive in the Washington, DC area where you'll spend the next 2 nights at your centrally located Hilton hotel. Before checking in, we will visit Arlington National Cemetery (weather permitting), burial place of President John F. Kennedy (as well as his 2 brothers Bobby & Ted) and the site of the Tomb of the Unknowns and Challenger Memorial. This evening, feel free to join us for a visit to the Jefferson Memorial as well as a stop by the Capitol and White House for some evening photos! After, we'll drop those interested in Georgetown where you'll find restaurants, cafes and nightclubs! A great place to people-watch!

Saturday, November 27, 2010.
This morning you'll enjoy a 4 hour tour of Washington conducted by an experienced local guide. You will leave the coach to visit the Vietnam Wall, Lincoln Memorial, Korean Memorial and FDR Memorial. After the tour you're free for the afternoon to visit the Capitol Building, explore the Smithsonian Institution—the world's largest museum complex, or do whatever else you'd care to. You are free for the evening to dance the night away or do your own thing!

Sunday, November 28, 2010.
All good things must come to an end and so you'll depart for home and arrive home late in the day.
